

Patio Barbecue Party Farewell To Couple Leaving for Ohio

By Janet Robinson
FR 5-7063

A neighborhood farewell patio barbecue was held at Mary and John Wilhelm's last week for Marilyn and Bill Forrester who are moving to Dayton, Ohio, in July. Over 50 Ellinwoodites were present with Marilyn and Bill and their two children, Scotty and Kathy the very best of everything in their new home. Bill is returning to civil service work at Wright Field in Dayton.

Later in the evening the couples enjoyed coffee and cake which was beautifully decorated by Lucy Puschich portraying the future home and good fortune which was wished the Forresters.

Tommy Bowman celebrated his 9th birthday on June 19 at Disneyland with his sister, Billie Jean and two friends, Mickey and Anita Michaels. The quartet visited all the different lands and rode on all but one ride in Fantasyland. Needless to say, a wonderful time was had by all.

Three little girls appeared in a dance recital on June 16 at the Pier Avenue School in Hermosa Beach. They were Michelle DeArmitt of Pacific Coast Highway, Marney Covey of Highgrove and Diane Shaw of Janet Lane.

Merla and Albert Wilson and their two sons, Steven and David, traveled to San Diego to visit the boys grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Gil S. Skimin, and great grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Klotz. While there they went swimming in Mission Bay and spent many hours watching the dancers at the 5th annual Square Dance Convention held in Balboa Park. They also visited the Museum of Man while there.

Ellinwood was well represented at both the Grand Canyon and Oak Creek Canyon, Ariz., during the past three weeks.

First Van and Sue Sommer of Green Meadows went to Phoenix to visit friends and then on to Oak Creek to spend a few days. The cool mountain air of Oak Creek was most enjoyable after the hot days in Phoenix.

The following Saturday two families on Highgrove, Bud and Joyce Shires and son, Steven, and Bill and Darby Bailey and daughters, Karen and Sandra, left for the Grand Canyon. They spent a full week at the south rim and en-

Rev. Miller To Phoenix

Clinton Beeson, lay delegate from Hope Evangelical United Brethren Church recently returned from the church's annual conference at Lodi. Changes in ministerial positions were announced at the convocation. The Rev. Monrad M. Bergesen, from the North Glendale church, will take over the local pastorate, replacing Rev. Homer H. Miller, who will go to Phoenix, Ariz. The Rev. Miller has been pastor of the local church for the past three years.

MORI GETS DOCTOR OF MEDICINE DEGREE

Hideo D. Mori, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kokiichi Mori, of 309 E. 20th St., received his doctor of medicine degree recently at the 270th convocation at the University of Chicago. More than 753 students were graduated in the commencement rites. Chancellor Lawrence A. Kimpson gave the convocation address and awarded degrees at the ceremonies in Rockefeller Memorial Chapel.

joyed hikes and many points of interest. The same Saturday the Robinson family and Robby's friend, Bobby Warner of Torrance, took off for Oak Creek for a few days of fishing and swimming and then on to the Grand Canyon for two days of sight seeing. Then home via Davis Dam where huge trout could be seen in the "No Fishing" area. All the boys could do was stand and gaze!

More birthdays celebrated this past week were Linda Rogers on June 20 with a patio party which she invited 14 girls to. A decorated sheet cake with a doll in the corner and eight candles to blow out was served with ice cream and punch after the barbecue.

The last birthday to report this week was that of Zandra Puschich who celebrated her fourth on June 24. Seven little friends were invited in to have a piece of angel cake made in the form of an old fashioned doll, and pop and ice cream.
